

October 2007
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SNAP! Productions is very proud to present Tony Kushner's two-part Pulitzer Prize winning masterpiece, Angels in America. The play is widely considered the most important, spectacular and entertaining American play of the late 20th century. As relevant today as at the height of the AIDS crisis, Kushner's epic vision touches on Mormonism, Judaism, racism, homosexuality, marriage, history, politics and art. And yet the story remains profoundly human.

Jack Kroll of Newsweek calls Angels in America "daring and dazzling! The most ambitious American play of our time: an epic that ranges from earth to heaven..."

SNAP! Productions will be presenting both parts of Angels in America. Angels in America: Millennium Approaches, will run from November 15–December 9, 2007. SNAP! Productions will bring you another Omaha Premiere when it mounts the second part, Angels in America: Perestroika. This part will run from March 6 - March 30, 2008.

Buy your tickets now for Kushner's apocalyptic saga of people struggling with AIDS in the 1980's. This drama won a Pulitzer Prize and multiple Tony Awards and the HBO miniseries, directed by Mike Nichols, won multiple Emmys. The cast features Matt Allen, Roderick Cotton, Jennifer Gilg, Kirstin Kluver, Stephen M. Shelton, Michal Simpson, Therese Rennels and Brian Zealand.

Tom Lowe, with assistance from M. Michele Phillips, directs this epic drama, Angels in America: Millennium Approaches, which runs from November 15–December 9, 2007 at 3225 California Street. Curtain times are 8:00 pm, Thursday, Friday and Saturday; 6:00 pm on Sundays. The Sunday, December 9 show will start at 2:00 pm. The theater opens a half hour before curtain time.
