For Immediate Release:

SNAP! Productions to mount the Pulitzer Prize Winning play Doubt: A Parable

Doubt, a Parable was the winner of the 2005 Pulitzer Prize for Drama .and chosen as the best play of the year in 2005 by over 10 newspapers and magazines. Now, SNAP! Productions is excited to bring this riveting play to the theatre goers of Omaha.

Doubt, a Parable by John Patrick Shanley is a thought-provoking tale about faith, truth and the clash of generations. Set in a Bronx Catholic school in 1964, Sister Aloysius suspects a student is getting too much attention from the progressive Father Flynn. Convinced of the priest's guilt but lacking any evidence to support her claim, her investigation transforms into an elaborate game of cat and mouse, plagued by uncertainties and driven by obsession.

This Broadway hit was hailed by the Associated Press as “the number one play of the year.”

“A gripping story of suspicion that is less about scandal than about fascinatingly nuanced questions of moral certainty” –Variety

“Doubt is a lean, potent drama...passionate, exquisite, important and engrossing.” –Newsday

“The pursuit of truth's shadows.” –Chicago Tribune

“Even as Doubt holds your conscious attention as an intelligently measured debate play, it sends off stealth charges that go deeper emotionally. One of the year's ten best.”-Ben Brantley, The New York Times

“Doubt is a lean, potent drama . . . passionate, exquisite, important, and engrossing.”-Linda Winer,Newsday
