ACT TWO SCENE THREE

1

Paulie and Pete carrying a pot of sauce and some plates come into the dining room and take their seats next to Luke, Mark, Jude, and an innocent looking HEATHER, all of 17.

LUKE

You might recognize Heather from the paper. She's the one suing her school.

PETE

Oh. That's right. You're the Condom Prom Queen.

HEATHER

Well that's how the lame stream media has simplified it. Actually, I'm suing the school because their violating my constitutional rights to privacy by making sexual education mandatory towards graduation.

JUDE

Wait a minute. Especially in this day and age of AIDS and STD's, don't you think sexual education helps kids?

HEATHER

On the contrary, sexual education and free condom distribution sends the message to our youth that they should have pre-marital sex.

MARK

But teenagers are always going to experiment with sex. It's human nature.

HEATHER

No offense, sir, but it's not human nature but rather your generation's lower standard of morality that has put my generation at risk. AIDS and other lethal STD's come from the sexual deviant lifestyle that you and your peers brought into this world. And because of that my peer group is faced with fixing the problem.
